

HIGH DOWN SCHOOLS SINGLE EQUALITY POLICY

EQUALITY STATEMENT

Legal Duties

As schools we welcome our duties under the Equality Act 2010. The general duties are to:

- eliminate discrimination,
- advance equality of opportunity
- foster good relations

We understand the principal of the act and the work needed to ensure that those with protected characteristics are not discriminated against and are given equality of opportunity.

A protected characteristic under the act covers the groups listed below:

- age (for employees not for service provision),
- disability
- race
- sex (including issues of transgender)
- gender reassignment
- maternity and pregnancy
- religion and belief,
- sexual orientation
- Marriage and Civil Partnership (for employees)

In order to meet our general duties, listed above, the law requires us to do some specific duties to demonstrate how we meet the general duties. These are to:

- Publish equality Information – to demonstrate compliance with the general duty across its functions (We will not publish any information that can specifically identify any child)
- Prepare and publish equality objectives

To do this we will collect data related to the protected characteristics above and analyse this data to determine our focus for our equality objectives. The data will be assessed across our core provisions as a school. This will include the following functions:

- Admissions
- Attendance
- Attainment
- Exclusions
- Prejudice related incidents

Our objectives will detail how we will ensure equality is applied to the services listed above however where we find evidence that other functions have a significant impact on any particular group we will include work in this area.

We also welcome our duty under the Education and Inspections Act 2006 to promote community cohesion.

HIGH DOWN SCHOOLS SINGLE EQUALITY POLICY

We recognise that these duties reflect international human rights standards as expressed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the UN Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities, and the Human Rights Act 1998.

In fulfilling our legal obligations we will:

- Recognise and respect diversity
- Foster positive attitudes and relationships, and a shared sense of belonging
- Observe good equalities practice, including staff recruitment, retention and development
- Aim to reduce and remove existing inequalities and barriers
- Consult and involve widely
- Strive to ensure that society will benefit

Our School Aims

- share the joy of learning and growing together
- enable children to become confident, reflective, enquiring and independent learners
- develop key learning skills to enable children to flourish as learners for life
- foster children's self-esteem and help them build positive relationships
- encourage children to respect the ideas, attitudes, values and feelings of others
- develop children's sense of belonging in their school and wider community and their responsibilities as custodians of the planet and global citizens

We will achieve this through:

- Recognising that children learn in a variety of ways
- Valuing and including each individual and responding to their needs
- A commitment to high quality teaching and learning
- Opportunities for staff development and training
- Providing a broad and balanced curriculum
- Providing a well planned, collaborative structured curriculum
- Providing stimulating, challenging and enjoyable learning experiences
- Providing technological experiences for all children
- Rewarding and celebrating success
- Providing positive role models
- Providing high quality multi-cultural experiences for all children
- High expectations of behaviour through a fair and consistent approach
- Providing achievable targets to develop confidence
- Enhancing the school and providing a welcoming environment
- Providing age appropriate, accessible and stimulating resources
- Developing a pride in our school
- Forging and maintaining positive links with the wider community

Therefore High Down Children are:

- Happy, healthy and confident learners
- Respectful of themselves, others and the environment

HIGH DOWN SCHOOLS SINGLE EQUALITY POLICY

- High achievers both academically and socially
- Caring individuals with high self esteem

Addressing Prejudice Related Incidents

This school is opposed to all forms of prejudice and we recognise that children and young people who experience any form of prejudice related discrimination may fair less well in the education system. We provide both our pupils and staff with an awareness of the impact of prejudice in order to prevent any incidents. If incidents still occur we address them immediately and report them to the Local Authority using their guidance material. The Local Authority may provide some support.
